Spring is officially here and we, at Trinity, are gearing up for the last trimester of the school year. How is your year going? Read below for some news and updates from TES.

Eight Years & Counting...

Despite a valiant effort, this year's eighth-grade class was unable to break the faculty's winning streak in the annual Eighth-grade vs. Faculty basketball game.

Final score: 41-39

Alumni Reunion a HUGE Success

More than 80 alums, alumni parents and Trinity faculty reunited for the holidays on Saturday, December 19, at the home of Claudia and Andy Heath (parents of Pemberton, '04, and Claudia, '07).

Click the image to view more pictures from the event.

We had alumni from almost every class from 2004 to 2009. We hope you had a good time celebrating the holidays with your old classmates!

If you have any great ideas for our next alumni reunion party or any other alumni events, email Jessica Masanotti.
